بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

IN THE NAME OF ALLAH THE MOST GRACIOUS THE MOST MERCIFUL

The Women's Committee of Masjid As-Saffat

The Women's Committee of Masjid As-Saffat was founded in 1974 to provide opportunities for Muslim women to grow in Islam and propagate it as a way of life. The Committee works under the auspices of Masjid As-Saffat, Inc. of Baltimore and lends its support to the Masjid administration in matters concerning women. Our mission is to advocate for the education, health, stabilization, and empowerment of Muslim women and children, and to facilitate the public's awareness of Islamic beliefs.

Each year, the committee sponsors charitable and educational projects and therefore welcomes tax-deductible donations to assist in our valuable work.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ يُنْفِقُونَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ حَبَّةٍ أَنْبَتَتْ
سَبْعَ سَنَابِلَ فِي كُلِّ سُنبُلَةٍ مِائَةٌ حَبَّةٌ وَاللَّهُ يُضْعِفُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ
وَاسِعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٦١﴾

The example of those who spend their wealth in the cause of Allah is that of a grain that sprouts into seven ears, each bearing one hundred grains. And Allah multiplies 'the reward even more' to whoever He wills. For Allah is All-Bountiful, All-Knowing.

Sura Al-Baqarah 2:261

مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ حَرْثَ الْآخِرَةِ نَزِدْ لَهُ فِي حَرْثِهِ ^ص وَمَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ
حَرْثَ الدُّنْيَا نُؤْتِهِ مِنْهَا وَمَا لَهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنْ نَصِيبٍ

Whoever desires the harvest of the Hereafter, We will increase their harvest. And whoever desires 'only' the harvest of this world, We will give them some of it, but they will have no share in the Hereafter.

Sura Ash-Shura 42:20

... وَمَا تَقْدِمُوا إِلَّا أَنْفُسِكُمْ مِمَّنْ خَيْرٍ تَجِدُوهُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُوَ خَيْرٌ
وَأَعْظَمُ أَجْرًا وَأَسْتَغْفِرُوا لِلَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ^ص

...And whatever good you send forth for yourselves, you will find it with Allah far better and more rewarding. And seek Allah's forgiveness. Surely Allah is All-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Sura Al-Muzzammil 73:20

Conference Sessions

Sessions

OFFERED FIRST SESSION ONLY

1. Caring for Ourselves by Caring for Our Cells - Father, mother, and family are bestowed with the task of raising children, thus raising humanity. Truly health is at the center of this endeavor for all of humanity. Scientists research and cite the average human body as having about “37 trillion cells.” The current research is tricky, astounding, complex, “ALLAH Witness-Baring!” In this session, we will not get into those complex intricacies, but we will view the basic ways we can care for ourselves by caring for our cells, InshaAllah.

Maisha Muhammad- Presenter

2. KISS (Keep It Simple Sis) Geared towards new Shahadahs and non-Muslims who still need to know the basics of Islam. There is no compulsion in religion. Truth stands clear from error.

Aisha Muhammad- Guest Presenter

3. Reflections For My Sisters-Are We Who We Say We Are? What does real sisterhood look like? Are we our sisters' keepers? How do we grow old together? This session will dig deep into our sisterhood to bring out the best of who we are and who we should strive to become, In shaa Allah.

Atiya Abdur Rahman-Presenter

4. Jannah Bound-We have all thought about, dreamed about, and wondered about what Jannah will be like, but we have to get there. This session will explore various methods and techniques from Qur'an and Sunnah that worshippers of Allaah may use to gain HIS pleasure and thereby enter Jannah. If you're Jannah Bound, come join us and bring your suggestions with you to share with your sisters on the same journey. We are all in this together!

Rehana B. Yahya-Presenter

OFFERED SECOND SESSION ONLY

1. Got Deen?- Discussing the correct understanding of the Deen and ways to strengthen our home life by instilling the values of Qur'an ad Sunnah in every room.

Aisha Muhammad- Guest Presenter

2. The Etiquette Of Parenting- This session will discuss the responsibilities, duties, commitments and obligations that Muslim parents must adhere to when raising their children according to the teachings of the Holy Qur'an and the examples set for by our Beloved Prophet Muhammad and his Sunnah.

Jamila Garner- Presenter

3. Where There's A Will- In this session we will discuss how a person's assets are distributed upon their return to our Lord. Some may say, Allah swt has given us the guidelines in Quran, however, do you understand what it means? It's imperative to have an understanding about who are our heirs, and who are not, and what provisions we can leave to whom we love.

Taahirah Matin- Presenter

4. Sadaqah (Charity) That Keeps Growing- Allah (SWT) said, “Indeed, it is We who bring the dead to life and record what they have put forth and what they have left behind, and all things We have accounted for in a clear register.” (Quran 36:12) Join us as we (In Shaa Allah) discuss the responsibility of giving charity, according to Allah and the Prophet (SAWS), various ways of being generous and charitable, as well as the impact and importance of Sadaqah al-Jariyah (ongoing charity).

Aisha Abdullah- Presenter

JR Sessions

1. You're Only Human: Taking care of your mind, body, and soul.

Mecca Abdul Aziz-Presenter

2. The Role I Play: It's hard to know what role we should take throughout our lives. How do young Muslimahs fit into the community? What role can we play to spread Islam?

Jannah Abdul Aziz-Presenter

PRESENTERS

Sister Naasira Salahuddin accepted Islaam in the mid 1980s as a teen. She was born and raised in Brooklyn NY and now lives in Long Island, NY. She has 3 children and 3 grandchildren. She has been in healthcare for over 30 years and presently is a Nurse Administrator at a hospital in Long Island. She is a member of Masjid Allahu Akbar in Long Island, NY and is the Chairwoman of the Masjid's Women's Committee. She also is the founder and facilitator of the monthly, sisters-only, Reading for Jannah Book Club that was started in September of 2015.

Sabriah Bilal was born and raised in Philadelphia, the daughter of James and Antoinette Bilal. Mother to five children, she is the CEO of breebreespeaks, which is an organization whose mission is to empower, inspire, and aid in healing women through 1:1 coaching. She is a public speaker and author of Crooked Rib, Golden Soul. Sabriah has twenty years as an educator and believes in the education of youth. She has spent the last eighteen years as the Islamic Studies teacher for the Alimah Girl Scouts program based in Philadelphia, alongside her mother, Antoinette Bilal, who is the director.

Aishah Muhammad-Mumin became Muslim in 1972 in Philadelphia on Columbia Ave at the Masjid that was part of the Darul Islam movement. Right after the shahaadah, she started right in with learning about her new way of life and has studied Arabic, Qur'an and fiqh under various imams in person and online. They include Imam Javed Baiyat of the Laurel Masjid, and Tajweed under Muhammad ar'Rae of the Noorani Qaida publications earning a certificate. Alhamdulillah, she is a former member the Women's Committee of Masjid as Saffat (WCMAS) and the Gwynn Oak Community and has assisted in teaching and caring for children in the Baltimore and Laurel area. She has earned a design degree from the University of Delaware enhancing her sewing and computer skills. Aishah resides in Philadelphia where she still studies Qur'an now online with Bayyinah Institute and still assists in teaching and caring for children while she makes garments for the Muslims.

Maisha Muhammad is an 11-year member of WCMAS although she has been a member of the Masjid As-Saffat community over 40 years. The mother of 7 children, 23 grandchildren, and 4 bonus grandchildren, Sister Maisha is a former elementary/middle school teacher. She has taught at the Islamic Community School of Masjid As-Saffat for 9 years and in the Baltimore City Public School System for 18 years. Maisha is a member of Sharikat An Nisaa, a business of 5 Muslim women. Ms. Muhammad has studied under Imam Taif Abdullah, Imam of Masjid As-Saffat. She has also studied tajweed and tafseer under Sister Umm Zakiyyah at Masjid Al Ihsan. Maisha has lived in Baltimore all of her life.

Atiya Abdurrahman is a graduate of the Islamic Community School Baltimore MD. She has her undergraduate degree from the University Of Maryland, Eastern Shore, and her graduate degree from the University of Baltimore in Conflict Management Resolution. Atiya is a former member of the Junior Women's Committee, and has worked with WCMAS over the years as a quest presenter and in other capacities. Atiya is married and the mother of two children.

Taahirah Matin is a mother of 5, and grandmother of 3. She is a Baltimore native and spent 7 of her formative years in Saudi Arabia. She earned her Bachelor's of Science degree in Social Work from Morgan State University. She is currently a teacher at Islamic Community School, where she is also an alumna.

Aisha Abdullah- Alhamdulillah, is a pioneering member of Masjid As-Saffat, one of the co-founders of the original "sisterhood" of the Masjid, and has been a member of WCMAS since its inception in 1974. Having studied Aqeedah, Tafsir and Seerah under the auspices of Imam Taif Abdullah for more than 40 years, she joined the Iqaamatiddeen Organization several years ago (Iqaamatiddeen means the establishment of the DEEN OF ALLAH). Aisha is also a teacher and educator, holding both a BA and Masters in Education. For almost 20 years, she held the title of headmistress of an International Girls School in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. Arabic, Quran and Islamic Studies were major components of the curriculum of the school. Presently, Aisha is an entrepreneur, and Alhamdulillah has written her first book!

Rehana b. Yahya has been with the Women’s Committee of Masjid As-Saffat since its inception and studies under Imam Taif Abdullah, Imam of Masjid As-Saffat in Baltimore, Maryland. She has a master’s degree in secondary education from Coppin State University. She is principal, teacher, and co-founder of Islamic Community School also located in Baltimore, MD.

Jennah Abdul Aziz started her involvement with Jr. WCMAS when she was 12 and has since moved on to join as a member of the senior WCMAS. She has been giving sessions for 5 years now and enjoys sharing her experience as a young Muslimah. Jennah graduated Islamic Community School with all honors in 2020 and returned to teach in 2021. Between teaching and studying for college classes, Jennah is also the lead on the Jr. Conference planning committee.

Mecca Abdul Aziz is a 25-year-old sister with an interest in self care and lifestyle. She began working with the Jr. Women's Committee when she was 12 years old. Mecca attended the Islamic community school from elementary through high school graduation. She graduated from University of Maryland Global Campus with a bachelors degree in East Asian Studies in 2020. She can be found reading online or on her YouTube channel, where she occasionally posts her favorite skin care routines.

Jamila Garner- Alhamdulillah, Jamila took her Shahada in 1976, while on summer break between her Junior and Senior year of High School, when she was seventeen years old. Jamillah is married, the mother of six, and grandmother of twelve, Masha’Allah. Alhamdulillah, Jamila has been a member of the Women’s Committee of Masjid As-Saffat for forty-seven years. She has been a workshop presenter/facilitator for the annual women’s conference since the beginning (1983), utilizing both creative and engaging formats to present her information to the participants, Alhamdulillah. Jamila is also a member of the Gwynn Oak Islamic Community/Masjid Al-Ihsan since 2005, where she now serves on the Board, assigned to their Social Services Department. She is also a member of the Sister’s Network of Masjid Al-Ihsan, which supports the Masjid through fund raisers and events catering to the women. Jamila also taught at the Islamic Community School for twenty years (1979-1999) Alhamdulillah.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

♥ We used to know but we didn't act

Ibnul Qayyim (RA) said,

"A girl died of the plague and her father saw her in his dream. He said, 'my daughter, tell me about the hereafter. So she said, 'We've approached a serious matter. We used to know but we didn't act. I swear by Allah, to add one tasbeehah (saying Subhan Allah) or a single Rak'ah to my book of deeds is more beloved to me than the whole world and everything in it.'

This girl said words of great importance. 'We used to know but we didn't act', but many of us don't understand what she means.

We used to know, that if we say Subhan Allah wa bi Hamdihi 100 times our sins are forgiven even if they're like the foam of the sea (yet days and nights pass and we don't say it)

We used to know that two rak'ahs of Duha prayer is the equivalent of giving 360 charities (yet day after day pass and we don't pray it)

We used to know that a house in the middle of Jannah is guaranteed for one who abandons lying even while joking (yet every second sentence we utter is a lie)

We used to know that fasting a day voluntarily for the sake of Allah puts a distance between our face and the fire the size of seven trenches and Allah distances our face from the fire the distance travelled in 70 years, (and we haven't fasted single day this week)

We used to know that whoever visits a sick person is followed by 70,000 angels seeking Allah's forgiveness on his behalf (but we haven't visited a sick person this week)

We used to know that whoever prayed a funeral prayer and followed it till it was buried has two Qiraats of reward and a Qiraat is like the mountain of Uhud (yet weeks pass and we haven't been to the graveyard.)

We used to know that whoever builds a mosque even if it's like a bird's nest Allah builds a house for them in paradise (yet we haven't contributed to the building of a Masjid, even with 10 dinars)

We used to know that the one who supports the widow and her children is like the fighter in the path of Allah and the one who fasts all day and prays all night without sleeping. (Yet we haven't contributed to sponsoring a widow and her children)

We used to know that whoever reads a single letter from the Quran has a good deed and every deed is multiplied by 10. Yet we haven't made a point to read it every day.

We used to know that an accepted Hajj has the reward of jannah and it sends the person who completed it off like the day his mother gave birth to him. (With a clean book of deeds) yet we haven't performed the rites of Hajj although our circumstances have made it easy for us.

We knew the honor of a believer is in Qiyam Al-layl, and that the Prophet (pbuh) and his companions never missed it all their lives despite being busy with making a living and fighting in the path of Allah and spreading the religion. But we have neglected this matter terribly.

We knew the Day of Judgment was coming without a doubt and that Allah will resurrect us from our graves but we haven't prepared for that day.

We used to bury the deceased and pray over them but haven't prepared ourselves for a day like this one, as if we have a guarantee that it won't happen to us.

We know that every breath we breathe is getting us closer to death yet we're still busy with amusement and playing. It's time we change the way we're living and prepare properly for the day of accounting.

"On the Day a man will flee from his brother. And his mother and his father
And his wife and his children, For every man, that Day, will be a matter adequate for him."

Quran (80:34-37)
